Dear Fellow Educator,
You've been there too — under that stack of permission, consent and release forms. So I know job-shadowing experiences are great for students, but big headaches for the rest of us.

I personally guarantee that Vocational Biographies can help relieve those headaches and more.

Your students will be able to job-shadow hundreds of inspiring careers from across the country on the Internet, 24/7.

Please take a few minutes now to look over this information brochure. With VocBiosOnline, you will be giving your students a living career resource on the Internet.

With kindest regards,
Toby Behnen
